WONDER HAS HER SHARE OF REAL CULTURE

EDITOR ELLIS DECLARES HIS CAMP IS CHUCK FULL OF COLLEGE BRED PEOPLE

As a community the people of Wonder will run about as high in percentage of educated men and women as the most cultured city in the country, says the Wonder News.

In proportion to the number of residents it is doubtful if even Boston, with its world-famous culture, surpasses this little mining camp away off from the haunts of men in the number of men who are entitled to write A. B., with several other college degree initials, after their names.

With a population of approximately 200, there are no less than nine men who have been graduated from colleges, two from Berkeley, Cal., three from Golden, Colo., one from Indiana, one from Stanford, one from Lehigh, and one from Utah, to say nothing of a student at the Nevada university and several who may be classed as educated men from the rough school of experience.

Among the ladies there are at least two who can show sheepskins as graduate nurses, and many who have normal school diplomas.

This is not a bad showing for a small town.

POLICE GET ALLEGED MURDERER OF FAMILY

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 9.—A section hand employed in Clarinda, Ia., was arrested last night as a suspect of the murder of the Joseph Moore family in Valisea, Ia., June 19.

Ross Moore, a brother of the eldest victim, says the prisoner answers the description of S. A. Suard, employed on his brothers farm five years ago.

Suard had a small ax in his possession and several false police badges. He is believed at times to be demented. Suard was taken to Creston, Ia.

HAYTIAN PRESIDENT IS KILLED BY EXPLOSION

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Aug. 9.—President Cincinnatus Leconte was killed today when fire destroyed the palace. The fire resulted from the explosion of a powder magazine adjoining. The origin is unknown. The country is on the verge of a revolution. Great excitement prevails and street fighting is expected.

PROGRESSIVES MAKE CLEAN SWEEP OF KANSAS

TOPEKA, Kan., August 9.—Governor Stubbs has apparently defeated Curtis for the United States senate nomination. An official count will be necessary to determine the exact vote. Stubbs has 83 legislative district and Curtis 73. The progressives have swept the state.

WRITES CORONER LETTER AND THEN SHOTS SELF

SAN FRANCISCO, August 9.—Frederick Meinecke, a Spanish war veteran, wrote to Coroner Leland where to find his body and then blew out his brains in Golden Gate park today. He was separated from his wife in Santa Cruz. Illness caused his despondency.

MINING MAN COMMITS SUICIDE AT SPRINGDALE

JOHN MURPHY, NOTED CHARACTER IN SOUTH, DIES FROM SELF INFLICTED WOUND

Justice of the Peace J. D. O'Brien of Pioneer summoned a jury to inquire into the death of John Murphy, whose body was found in a dugout at the rear of the Towles house, in Springdale, on August 3.

The jury consisted of Joseph L. Gant, Jacob Wolf, J. R. Bryan, Will C. McGarry, Fred Milliken and Henry B. Sullivan. Dr. Bulette, the health physician for the Bullfrog end of the county, and George Greenwood, business partner of Murphy, were the main witnesses.

That "Spud," as the deceased was known, ended his own life by sending a bullet through his brain, was made clear to the jury, which found as follows:

"We, the undersigned, members of the coroner's jury assembled at Springdale, Nye county, Nevada, on this 2d day of August, A. D. 1912, in the matter of an inquest held by Justice of the Peace Joseph D. O'Brien, of Pioneer township, Nye county, Nevada, upon the body of John Murphy, deceased, find as follows:

"We found the body of J. W. Murphy in a dugout at the rear of a house 200 yards west of main county road to T. & T. depot at Springdale, Nye county, Nevada, on August 3, 1912, about 9:30 p. m., and our decision is that John W. Murphy met his death from a gunshot wound self-inflicted."

Murphy was quite a character in the southern country in the early days, of which he represented some good people in the east. "Spud" was an actor in his earlier days, and it is said that he occupied a "way-up position in the profess. But "Spud" would drink, whether in the theatrical or mining business, and there is no doubt but what King Alcohol played the leading part in the tragic climax of poor "Spud's" life.

RENO BOASTS OF BIG NOTABLE IN DIVORCE COLONY

PRESIDENT OF MERGENTHALER LINOTYPE COMPANY AFTER DIVORCE

Philip T. Dodge, president of the Mergenthaler Linotype company, with main offices in the Tribune building, New York City, and branch offices in every large city in the country, including San Francisco, has filed suit for divorce in the Reno courts from Margaret B. Dodge, who is at present in New York. Dodge holds over 100 patents on the linotype machines which are used in every newspaper office in the country. Before becoming president of the Mergenthaler company Dodge was a patent attorney.

Although Dodge's complaint was immediately placed upon the secret file it was stated that its contents were not in any degree sensational, desertion being the main plea for a divorce.

Dodge has been conducting the affairs of the Mergenthaler company while residing in Reno the last six months, devoting several hours each morning to his correspondence. Occupying the handsome Huskey home on Granite street, in the fashionable part of Reno, he has entertained rather extensively. Frequent box parties at the theater, followed by late suppers at the colony cafe have served to pass away the period necessary to secure a residence. Sending to New York for his big touring car, Dodge has driven it almost every day, frequently going to Pyramid lake, 50 miles across the desert.

It is not expected that Dodge's wife will contest the suit.

Miss Gertrude Roche, sister of Mrs. J. C. Piercy Jr., arrived this morning from Chicago for an extended visit.
